

GOODSPEED MUSICALS

A safe place for families to experience live theatre together.

SENSORY-FRIENDLY PERFORMANCES

Sunday, September 24 • 2pm

Sunday, December 10 • 2pm

Everyone should get the chance to enjoy live theatre. Our 2016 sensory-friendly performance of Bye Bye Birdie was such a huge success that we've decided to expand in 2017 to offer sensory-friendly performances for both Oklahoma! and A Connecticut Christmas Carol. These family-friendly performances are designed and intended for those who are on the autism spectrum or who have other sensory issues. The theatre environment will be altered, providing a safe, friendly, comfortable and judgment-free zone that is welcoming for all.

Oklahoma!* • Sept 24, 2pm

The Goodspeed, East Haddam, CT

Kick up your cowboy boots and find yourself in a brand new state with the first-ever Goodspeed production of Rodgers & Hammerstein's classic, bursting with song, dance and romance.

A Connecticut Christmas Carol* • Dec 10, 2pm

The Terris Theatre, Chester, CT

Mark Twain, P.T. Barnum, Harriet Beecher Stowe and William Gillette make spirited appearances in a tuneful new adaptation of the Dickens' holiday classic, now spiced with the flavor of the Nutmeg State.

Here's what you can expect at a sensory-friendly performance:

- Pre-show resources such as a character guide, plot synopsis, photos and video clips, a social story, FAQs, and a "coming to the theatre" video at goodspeed.org/sensory-friendly
- Modifications to sound and lighting levels
- Accepting and inclusive environment
- Chill-out area for people who need a break
